

Doing Homework?

Electronic Information for Kids and Teens

Available 24 hours a day and free of charge
Through the Electronic Library of Minnesota (ELM) and Southeastern Libraries Cooperating (SELCO)

Go to: www.selco.info and Click on: iResearch

Biography Resource Center – Provided by SELCO Biographical information on more than 185,000 people

Contemporary Authors – Electronic Library of Minnesota (ELM) Information about more than 100,000 American and international authors

Discovering Authors – Electronic Library of Minnesota (ELM) Information about 380 of the most-studied authors now a part of Discovering Collection Discovering Collection – Electronic Library of Minnesota (ELM) Information on literature, history, biographies, science and social studies. Includes the Junior Reference Collection sources.

Health and Wellness Resource Center – Electronic Library of Minnesota (ELM)
Articles on a wide variety of health-related topics

InfoTrac OneFile – Electronic Library of Minnesota (ELM) Over 27 million articles on a wide variety of general interest topics

- ▣ Junior Edition – Information on current events, the arts, science, etc. for middle school students
- ▣ Kids Edition – For elementary school students
- ▣ Student Edition – For high school students.

Junior Reference Collection – Electronic Library of Minnesota (ELM) Eight reference books for kids. Now a part of the Discovery Collection.

Newsbank – Provided by SELCO Chicago Tribune, Washington Post, Minneapolis Star Tribune, St. Paul Pioneer Press, St. Cloud Times and the Duluth News Tribune

ELM is brought to you by MINITEX Library Information Network, with state appropriations to the Minnesota Higher Education Services Office (HESO) and the Minnesota Department of Children, Families & Learning.

SELCO electronic information is primarily paid for with Regional Library Basic System Support (RLBSS) funds provided by the state.